THORO PROBE OF CONTRACTS IN WAR TIME IS PROPOSED

Attorney Threatens Jailing As Penalty For Crooked Deals Alleged

CONVICTION DIFFICULT

Records Of Transactions In Many Instances Have Been Destroyed

WASHINGTON, June 15—The administration's decision to air the scandals growing out of frauds perpetrated by war profiteers will lead to close analysis of big contracts let for supplies of an emergency character in most of the big government departments during the war period, it was declared today at the department of justice, speedy and thorough search will be made by Attorney General Daugherty for graft which may be revealed in department files, and thru vouchers under which the profiteers collected enormous sums from the treasury.

Jail is promised by the attorney general as punishment for the worst offenders caught in investigation, in which those shown to have been guilty of crooked schemes to rake down extortionate profits on war contracts may also suffer maximum fines.

The investigation, quietly launched a few weeks ago, is now in full swing, it was officially announced, and will be prosecuted upon a nation wide scale, with the organization of a special bureau within the department to handle the war graft matters.

Decision of the attorney general to create a new bureau has the approval of President Harding. The attorney general's plans indicate the government's dealings with some of the largest dealers in the country will be established for bringing out into the open some of the more conspicuous samples of war profiteering. How much the war profiteers got away with probably will not be known for some time, as the accounting records in hundreds of instances have been completely destroyed.

FEDERATION OF CHURCHES WILL BE FORMED HERE

A meeting of delegates from all Protestant churches in the county will be held at Grace M. E. church in Coshocton Tuesday morning, June 21 for the purpose of electing officers of the newly formed Federation of Churches of Coshocton County, and also to adopt the constitution.

Accredited representatives of each congregation in the county are expected to participate in the meeting next Tuesday.

ALLIANCE OF RUSSIA AND CHINA AGAINST JAPAN, COMMON ENEMY, IS PREDICTED BY W. VANDERLIP

Aggression In Vladivostok District Serves To Solidify Russian Factions Against Japanese, Whose Plans Would Deprive Siberians Of An Outlet To The Sea

LONDON, June 15—An alliance of Russia and China against Japan was predicted today by Washington D. Vanderlip, head of an American syndicate which has secured rich commercial concessions from Soviet.

Mr. Vanderlip sailed for New York on the Olympic, being a fellow voyager with Admiral Sims.

Japan by repeated acts of aggression in the Vladivostok district is solidifying Russia against the Japanese and is drawing Russia and China together into a union that one day will drive the Japanese from the eastern coast of Asia," said Mr. Vanderlip. "During both my trips to Soviet Russia I found Russians of all classes united in the belief that Japan can not hold the old east coast of the Russian empire.

Japanese individuals and traders are welcomed in Russia, but Japan is not welcomed when she comes as a quarreling host.

"Feeling on this subject is just as strong as would be the reaction in the United States if some foreign power tried to seize Maine. There is now a nation of 19,000,000 souls in Siberia, hemmed in by a nation of Malays. This country can in the future support a population of 100,000,000 people, but it must have an outlet to the sea."

SURRENDER AIRCRAFT IS DEMAND OF THE ALLIES UPON GERMANY

If Teutons Accept Terms Of Allies Aviation Will Be Wiped Out There

PARIS, June 15—The council of ambassadors today demanded that Germany surrender all the airplanes and dirigible ballons constructed since the Boulogne agreement was enacted.

Germany was also warned not to build any more aircraft for a specified period of time. Germany was accused of violating the Boulogne agreement, which was drawn up about a year ago.

The allies will confiscate all the German military airplanes and 25 per cent of the civilian planes and dirigibles that were used for commercial purposes.

The Allies insist that Germany fulfill to the letter the air terms of the peace treaty and the protocols drawn up since the treaty was signed.

If Germany accepts the allied conditions and the penalties are put into effect, it will virtually wipe out aviation in Germany for the present.

TAFT IS URGED FOR CHIEF JUSTICE THRU LETTERS TO HARDING

Appointment Of Successor To White Will Not Be Made Until Fall

AGE IS AGAINST HIM

Justice Day, Of Canton, O., Is Possible Choice If An Associate Judge Gets It

WASHINGTON, June 15—President Harding has definitely decided to defer until fall, the appointment of a chief justice of the United States Supreme court, to succeed the late Edward Douglass White it was learned at the white house today.

With the court in the long summer recess, not convening again until early October, the president feels that there exists no real need of the selection of Justice White's successor, at this time.

Hundreds of letters have poured into the white house since the vacancy occurred. They are still coming. They come from bar associations from business mens organizations, educators and politicians and what not. The vast majority of these letters it was learned today urge the appointment of former president Taft to the vacancy. The former president's friends have literally bombarded the white house with requests that he be placed on the bench and even those who are known to be opposed to him on political grounds have added their voices to the chorus.

President Harding, it can be authoritatively stated, has not yet made a definite choice. He has not discussed the appointment of a new justice with any of his political advisers, so far as can be learned and this fact is causing considerable comment in Washington's "inner circles."

The deluge of letters favoring Taft have had some effect, it is said by those in close touch with the white house, but the president is understood not to have a definite decision. The age of Mr. Taft—63—is said to have entered largely into the hesitation about appointing him. The former president expressed himself frequently and at length during his incumbency about the inadvisability of placing men on the bench after they had passed the age of 60, and that fact is being recalled here.

The impression prevails in Washington that the appointment will go either to Judge Taft or to some sitting member of the court probably Justice Day and in the latter event the nomination of former Senator Sutherland to fill the associate vacancy is expected.

Maintenance Of Way Union Suspended Two Years Ago, Seeks Reinstatement Bearing A Program For Reorganization Of The Federation — Irish Delegates Push British Goods Boycott Resolution

DENVER, Colo., July 4—The railroad unions today are lining up for a test of strength in the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Victorious over Samuel Gompers last year on the issue of government ownership and democratic control of the railroads, they will again endeavor to wrest control of the federation.

They will line up solidly behind a resolution introduced today to re-instate the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railroad Shop Employes.

With the organization allowed to vote, it is claimed they will have sufficient strength to dominate the policies of the federation and force a reorganization of the administration.

A rupture in the ranks of the federation is threatened in event of favorable action on the resolution. Withdrawal of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, the second largest union in the federation, which was suspended last Saturday from the building trades department is feared.

The maintenance of way union, the second largest of the railway labor organizations, was suspended nearly two years ago for refusal to carry out the instructions of the executive council in a journal dispute with the carpenters.

It was charged at last year's convention they were suspended to prevent the railroad unions from controlling the largest vote in the federation.

If the efforts to reinstate the maintenance of way union are successful, they present a program for complete reorganization of the federation it was learned today.

The Irish, fighting mad, at the statement of J. H. Thomas, head of the British rail workers, took a slap at the British labor leader today when they eliminated from their resolution demanding recognition of the Irish "republic", an eulogy of British labor.

"Don't you believe Thomas took any wind out of our sails," said Tim Healey, one of the Irish leaders. "He has just encouraged us to fight all the harder. If British labor is helpless to settle the Irish question, American la-

FRANCE BEGINS TO WARM UP TO THE GERMAN PRODUCER

New Entente Appears Not Beyond The Possible As Economic Move

PARIS, June 15—France is adopting a new policy towards Germany, which is expected to result in an economic entente within six months. This information was revealed today by an offical of the foreign office who discussed the recent conference of Louis Loucheur French minister for liberated regions and Walter Rathenau minister of re-construction in the German cabinet.

The present relationships affecting France and Germany are regarded as highly significant, marking the opening of a new attitude in which sentiment will give way to cold business.

"Unless new differences arise France and Germany should reach an economic entente within six months," said the foreign office attache.

"Mutual economic interests are overruling sentiment. France is more interested than any other country in the revival of Germany."

REP. MORGAN SEEKS MONTHLY PAYMENTS OF PENSION MONEY

If the bill introduced into the House of Representatives Wednesday by Congressman William M. Morgan, of the Seventeenth Ohio District, is made a law, it will cause payment of all pensions to be made monthly instead of every three months as under the present law. The bill further provides that each payment shall be for the month immediately preceding, and that payments for any fractional part of a month shall be made in the next succeeding month.

"Under the system of payments every three months," said Morgan, "pensioners, especially widows who are totally dependent upon the government are often greatly inconvenienced by having to wait until the end of the three months, particularly when illness or some misfortune occurs."

Under the present conditions, according to Morgan, old pensioners often leave two and a half months or more accrued pension at the time of their death, while under the change veterans would receive the benefit of all of their pensions except a part of one month.

MRS. EVA KABER WILL BE 'SWEATED' TODAY

CLEVELAND, June 15—Cleveland police and detectives, acting under the direction of county prosecutor Edward C. Stanton are scouring the Mayfield road district of the city today in the hope of discovering more of the "medicine" used by Mrs. Erminia Colavito, alleged "poison queen" which she advertised to her intimates as guaranteed to cure the "bad habits" of husbands and other objectionable characters.

The analysis of the samples already in the hands of the prosecutor indicates strongly that the "medicine" given Dan Kaber, wealthy Lakewood publisher, who was killed on July 18, 1919 would have soon resulted in his death, had not the weapon of the stabber brought an earlier end.

It is likely however, police said that the Kaber prescription varied somewhat from the formula of the sample analyzed, as no trace of arsenic was found. The "medicine" was given to an Italian boy, who became violently sick.

Later in the day Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, principal in the murder plot which resulted in her husband's death will again face the prosecutor and will then be given an opportunity to "tell all" as she promised yesterday afternoon she would do.

It was announced today that the case will go to trial on the date originally set before Judge Bernon. Attorney Francis W. Poulson counsel for three of the principal defendants, has withdrawn his objections to an early trial.

A woman arrested last Friday, and known to be a close friend of Mrs. Kaber was released today, the state deciding that evidence to connect her with the crime was lacking.

HOW I EARNED MY FIRST DOLLAR

Reminiscences Of Youth And Its Ambitions, Related By Citizens Of Coshocton.

"The boys and girls today are having the same difficulty in getting started in life as we did back in the sixties, and it's no fun to earn a dollar and receive 25 cents instead " says Mrs. Emma Vickers, of Adams Mills in relating how she earned her first dollar.

"Old Sol shines out just as hot today as he did then, so please remember to pay the laborer liberally for his hire," she adds.

Mrs. Vickers earned her first dollar working for a lady who paid her 50 cents a week as a domestic.

"I went thinly clad, both summer and winter until I changed my position," she says. "I purchased my first pair of shoes at a cost of $2.50. IMPORTANCE OF ALL PUBLIC UTILITIES IS EXPLAINED TO ROTES

"Public utility prosperity means community prosperity means personal prosperity and contentment." This was the statement made by G. C Maxwell of Cleveland, former secretary of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, who spoke to the Rotarians at their regular meetings Tuesday noon.

G. C. MAXWELL

After impressing upon his audience the great importance of all public utilities, and the comfort derived from that source, he made the above statement, and added, "This being true, we must realize that the interests of the people of a community and the interests of the utilities which serve them are inseparably entwined. If the utility drives a hard bargain, becomes domineering and overbearing, the community suffers, and with it eventually the utility comes to grief. If on the other hand, the community drives a hard bargain and ties down its utilities with burdensome restrictions and confiscatory rates, there is disaster in store for the utility, and consequent suffering for the community."

"My plea, therefore, is not one for special favor to any utility or any class of utilities, but rather for simple justice and square dealing to the end that in permitting your utilities to live and expand, your community shall likewise prosper and expand.

"We heard much of "profiteering" during the war. I challenge the naming of a public utility profiteer. An inspection of their books will show no abnormal profits during the war period."

Mr. Maxwell's address was of considerable interest to the business men of the Rotary club. He gave them an insight into the management of utilities and the manner of setting consumer's rates. He recommended the state commission for the regulation of prices over the home rule method, both of which are in use in Ohio. He quoted a number of instances where street car companies, subjects of the home rule regulation, had been forced to quit business because of unfair treatment from city councils.

Joseph Shepler gave the customary vocational talk Tuesday. He chose as his subject the profession of a doctor of medicine.

Tuesday evening the Rotary club will be entertained by the Kiwanis club at the Country Club grounds. Plans for competitive contests and games between the two club members have been arranged, to take place in the afternoon, beginning at 4 30.

NEW EDUCATIONAL COMMISSIONER IS AFTER RADICALS

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 14.—"Radicals of this country have declared war on me and I have declared war on them" Dr. John J. Tigert, new United States commissioner of education, declared here this afternoon at a luncheon given him by the business men of Lexington, his home town.

"On account of my stand for Americanism, radical element fought approval of my appointment in the senate. The issue is the chief of those which face America today."

Dr. Tigert demonstrated a daylight moving picture screen, invented by Edison, which, he said, the bureau will recommend for use in public schools. "Eighty five per cent of education comes thru the eye, ten per cent thru other senses. In the past educational methods in schools have been based almost entirely on the ear," he said. He gave a lecture written by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Brooklyn, on a "Better America," which he said, the bureau will distribute.

The lecture, illustrated with slides, is to fight the Socialist idea, that wealth is labor. It stresses the importance of inventions and ideas.

DESPERATE BATTLE ON AT MINGO

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., June 14—A deadly battle between strikers on one side and the state police and one hundred deputized citizens is raging in the mountains about Lick Creek tent colony four miles south of here. The casualties at three o'clock this afternoon were known to be two strikers killed and one state trooper probably fatally wounded.

The battle had its preliminary skirmish this morning when Maj. Tom Davis with Capt. Backus of the state police and Sheriff Ranson went to the tent colony to arrest parties known to have fired upon an auto yesterday afternoon.

They were welcomed into camp by a volley of fire from the mountainsides where the strikers were in ambush. They retaliated with a machine gun with no effect.

The trio of officers returned to Williamson where they forced a posse of more than one hundred citizens who were deputized some time ago into a vigilante organization. The party entrained for the Lick Creek tent colony at noon to investigate and make arrests for the attack on the officers this morning. Their approach to the camp was halted by a raking fire from the ambushers and one of the state troopers whose name has not been learned here, fell, probably fatally wounded.

The battle was still raging at 3 p. m.

TOWNSHIP BOARD MAY RUN AGAIN

That the entire Tuscarawas-tp official board will come out for re-election in November seemed probable Tuesday. Already Frank A. Wisenburg has filed his petition for re-nomination on the Republican ticket as township clerk.

E. O. Wells, treasurer, will enter the race for another term as treasurer. He is a Republican.

The three township trustees, A. J. Ogle, Republican, Benjamin F. Mobley, Republican and Fred Tish, Democrat, will probably all enter the race again in November. They are considering this course in view of the success with which their administration has met, and in response to urgent requests by those who have followed closely the affairs of the township in its many phases.

WASHINGTON, June 15—The administration's decision to air the scandals growing out of frauds perpetrated by war profiteers will lead to close analysis of big contracts let for supplies of an emergency character in most of the big government departments during the war period, it was declared today at the department of justice, speedy and thorough search will be made by Attorney General Daugherty for graft which may be revealed in department files, and thru vouchers under which the profiteers collected enormous sums from the treasury.

Jail is promised by the attorney general as punishment for the worst offenders caught in investigation, in which those shown to have been guilty of crooked schemes to rake down extortionate profits on war contracts may also suffer maximum fines.

ALLIANCE OF RUSSIA AND CHINA AGAINST JAPAN, COMMON ENEMY, IS PREDICTED BY W. VANDERLIP

Aggression In Vladivostok District Serves To Solidify Russian Factions Against Japanese, Whose Plans Would Deprive Siberians Of An Outlet To The Sea

LONDON, June 15—An alliance of Russia and China against Japan was predicted today by Washington D. Vanderlip, head of an American syndicate which has secured rich commercial concessions from Soviet.

Mr. Vanderlip sailed for New York on the Olympic, being a fellow voyager with Admiral Sims.

Japan by repeated acts of aggression in the Vladivostok district is solidifying Russia against the Japanese and is drawing Russia and China together into a union that one day will drive the Japanese from the eastern coast of Asia," said Mr. Vanderlip. "During both my trips to Soviet Russia I found Russians of all classes united in the belief that Japan can not hold the old east coast of the Russian empire.

Japanese individuals and traders are welcomed in Russia, but Japan is not welcomed when she comes as a quarreling host.

"Feeling on this subject is just as strong as would be the reaction in the United States if some foreign power tried to seize Maine. There is now a nation of 19,000,000 souls in Siberia, hemmed in by a nation of Malays. This country can in the future support a population of 100,000 000 people, but it must have an outlet to the sea."

SURRENDER AIRCRAFT IS DEMAND OF THE ALLIES UPON GERMANY

If Teutons Accept Terms Of Allies Aviation Will Be Wiped Out There

PARIS, June 15—The council of ambassadors today demanded that Germany surrender all the airplanes and dirigible ballons constructed since the Boulogne agreement was enacted.

Germany was also warned not to build any more aircraft for a specified period of time. Germany was accused of violating the Boulogne agreement, which was drawn up about a year ago.

The allies will confiscate all the German military airplanes and 25 per cent of the civilian planes and dirigibles that were used for commercial purposes.

The Allies insist that Germany fulfill to the letter the air terms of the peace treaty and the protocols drawn up since the treaty was signed.

If Germany accepts the allied conditions and the penalties are put into effect, it will virtually wipe out aviation in Germany for the present

TAFT IS URGED FOR CHIEF JUSTICE THRU LETTERS TO HARDING

Appointment Of Successor To White Will Not Be Made Until Fall

AGE IS AGAINST HIM

Justice Day, Of Canton, O., Is Possible Choice If An Associate Judge Gets It

WASHINGTON, June 15 -President Harding has definitely decided to defer until fall, the appointment of a chief justice of the United States Supreme court, to succeed the late Edward Douglass White it was learned at the white house today.

With the court in the long summer recess, not convening again until early October, the president feels that there exists no real need of the selection of Justice White's successor, at this time.

Hundreds of letters have poured into the white house since the vacancy occurred. They are still coming. They come from bar associations from business mens organizations, educators and politicians and what not. The vast majority of these letters it was learned today urge the appointment of former president Taft to the vacancy The former president's friends have literally bombarded the white house with requests that he be placed on the bench and even those who are known to be opposed to him on political grounds have added their voices to the chorus.

President Harding, it can be authoritatively stated, has not yet made a definite choice. He has not discussed the appointment of a new justice with any of his political advisers, so far as can be learned and this fact is causing considerable comment in Washington's "inner circles."

The deluge of letters favoring Taft have had some effect, it is said by those in close touch with the white house, but the president is understood not to have a definite decision. The age of Mr. Taft—63—is said to have entered largely into the hesitation about appointing him. The former president expressed himself frequently and at length during his incumbency about the inadvisability of placing men on the bench after they had passed the age of 60, and that fact is being recalled here.

The impression prevails in Washington that the appointment will go either to Judge Taft or to some sitting member of the court probably Justice Day and in the latter event the nomination of former Senator Sutherland to fill the associate vacancy is expected.

Maintenance Of Way Union Suspended Two Years Ago, Seeks Reinstatement Bearing A Program For Reorganization Of The Federation — Irish Delegates Push British Goods Boycott Resolution

DENVER, Colo., July 4.—The railroad unions today are lining up for a test of strength in the convention of the American Federation of Labor.

Victorious over Samuel Gompers last year on the issue of government ownership and democratic control of the railroads, they will again endeavor to wrest control of the federation.

They will line up solidly behind a resolution introduced today to reinstate the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railroad Shop Employes.

With the organization allowed to vote, it is claimed they will have sufficient strength to dominate the policies of the federation and force a reorganization of the administration.

A rupture in the ranks of the federation is threatened in event of favorable action on the resolution. Withdrawal of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, the second largest union in the federation, which was suspended last Saturday from the building trades department is feared.

The maintenance of way union, the second largest of the railway labor organizations, was suspended nearly two years ago for refusal to carry out the instructions of the executive council in a journal dispute with the carpenters.

It was charged at last year's convention they were suspended to prevent the railroad unions from controlling the largest vote in the federation.

If the efforts to reinstate the maintenance of way union are successful, they present a program for complete reorganization of the federation it was learned today.

The Irish, fighting mad, at the statement of J. H. Thomas, head of the British rail workers, took a slap at the British labor leader today when they eliminated from their resolution demanding recognition of the Irish "republic", an eulogy of British labor.

"Don't you believe Thomas took any wind out of our sails," said Tim Healey, one of the Irish leaders. "He has just encouraged us to fight all the harder. If British labor is helpless to settle the Irish question, American la-

FRANCE BEGINS TO WARM UP TO THE GERMAN PRODUCER

New Entente Appears Not Beyond The Possible As Economic Move

PARIS, June 15—France is adopting a new policy towards Germany, which is expected to result in an economic entente within six months. This information was revealed today by an offical of the foreign office who discussed the recent conference of Louis Loucheur French minister for liberated regions and Walter Rathenau minister of re-construction in the German cabinet.

The present relationships affecting France and Germany are regarded as highly significant, marking the opening of a new attitude in which sentiment will give way to cold business.

"Unless new differences arise France and Germany should reach an economic entente within six months," said the foreign office attache.

"Mutual economic interests are overruling sentiment. France is more interested than any other country in the revival of Germany."

REP. MORGAN SEEKS MONTHLY PAYMENTS OF PENSION MONEY

If the bill introduced into the House of Representatives Wednesday by Congressman William M. Morgan, of the Seventeenth Ohio District, is made a law, it will cause payment of all pensions to be made monthly instead of every three months as under the present law. The bill further provides that each payment shall be for the month immediately preceding, and that payments for any fractional part of a month shall be made in the next succeeding month.

"Under the system of payments every three months," said Morgan, "pensioners, especially widows who are totally dependent upon the government are often greatly inconvenienced by having to wait until the end of the three months, particularly when illness or some misfortune occurs."

Under the present conditions, according to Morgan, old pensioners often leave two and a half months or more accrued pension at the time of their death, while under the change veterans would receive the benefit of all of their pensions except a part of one month.

MRS. EVA KABER WILL BE 'SWEATED' TODAY

CLEVELAND, June 15—Cleveland police and detectives, acting under the direction of county prosecutor Edward C. Stanton are scouring the Mayfield road district of the city today in the hope of discovering more of the "medicine" used by Mrs. Erminia Colavito, alleged "poison queen" which she advertised to her intimates as guaranteed to cure the "bad habits" of husbands and other objectionable characters.

The analysis of the samples already in the hands of the prosecutor indicates strongly that the "medicine" given Dan Kaber, wealthy Lakewood publisher, who was killed on July 18, 1919 would have soon resulted in his death, had not the weapon of the stabber brought an earlier end.

It is likely however, police said that the Kaber prescription varied somewhat from the formula of the sample analyzed, as no trace of arsenic was found. The "medicine" was given to an Italian boy, who became violently sick.

Later in the day Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, principal in the murder plot which resulted in her husband's death will again face the prosecutor and will then be given an opportunity to "tell all" as she promised yesterday afternoon she would do.

It was announced today that the case will go to trial on the date originally set before Judge Bernon. Attorney Francis W. Poulson counsel for three of the principal defendants, has withdrawn his objections to an early trial.

A woman arrested last Friday, and known to be a close friend of Mrs. Kaber was released today, the state deciding that evidence to connect her with the crime was lacking.

HOW I EARNED MY FIRST DOLLAR

Reminiscences Of Youth And Its Ambitions, Related By Citizens Of Coshocton.

"The boys and girls today are having the same difficulty in getting started in life as we did back in the sixties, and it's no fun to earn a dollar and receive 25 cents instead" says Mrs. Emma Vickers, of Adams Mills in relating how she earned her first dollar.

"Old Sol shines out just as hot today as he did then, so please remember to pay the laborer liberally for his hire," she adds.

Mrs. Vickers earned her first dollar working for a lady who paid her 50 cents a week as a domestic.

"I went thinly clad, both summer and winter until I changed my position," she says. "I purchased my first pair of shoes at a cost of $2.50. My feet were quite small at 12 years, and at that time I could get quite a nifty pair of shoes at that price. But Oh, My, how my feet have grown along with the rest. Now I get them at $15."

MINISTERS ASSAIL EMPLOYERS ASSN. IN DEFENSE OF Y.M.C.A.

PITTSBURG, Ja., June 15.—The Ministerial Association of this city has taken a hand in the fight of the local Employers' Association against the Y. W. C. A. In a set of outspoken resolutions the Ministerial Association holds up the Employers' Association to public scorn for its attempt to cripple the Y.W.C.A. because of the latter organization's efforts in behalf of decent industrial conditions. The employers' organization for several months, beginning with a campaign in which it succeeded in partially defeating the "Y's" drive for funds, has been sending out letters and circulars openly urging employers to withdraw their support from the association and from such churches as subscribed to the "industrial creed" of the Federal Council of Churches in America.

The resolutions adopted by the Ministerial Association were introduced by the Rev. Johnston. They conclude:

"Whereas, the said (employers') organization represents itself as speaking for the employing group—an assumption which we are convinced is contrary to fact, particularly in respect to many high-type Christian employers; and

"Whereas, we fully recognize that in the industrial and economic fields there is room for a proper diversity of opinion; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the Pittsburg Ministerial Association, resent this attempt of a commercial organization to prescribe limits within which alone the church and other religious organizations may move; that we reaffirm the historic right and duty of the church to proclaim the whole truth in Christ, as revealed in the Scriptures and as applied under the Holy Spirit to every relationship in life; that we deny to any political, commercial, industrial, or any other group or agency the right to set any restrictions on the freedom of the Christian church or its agencies to apply the spirit and standards of the Kingdom of God to the whole of life; that we declare it our solemn duty and purpose to defend this liberty of the gospel."

COLORADO RELIEF IS SLOW COMING

Contributions for the purpose of aiding the people of Pueblo, Colo., who were made homeless during the disastrous flood in that city a few days ago, had failed to become conspicuous at the local Salvation Army Wednesday.

Donations may be sent to the local Salvation Army post in care of Capt. W. Shackelford, Bok 163.

TWO MORE LIABLE TO INDICTMENT IN KABER MURDER CASE

CLEVELAND, June 14.—Two additional indictments, both against women, appeared almost certain today as Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton delved further into the maze of plotting that marked the killing of Daniel F. Kaber, wealthy Lakewood publisher two years ago.

One of these indictments, it is said, will name a woman held in the county jail for several days, and whose attorney is threatening to institute habeas corpus proceedings unless a formal charge is made.

The sixth indictment is expected to be returned against still another fortune teller—a resident of the east end—who has admitted to Prosecutor Stanton that she knew for three days before the murder that "something was brewing."

Two bottles containing medicine, believed to have been prescribed by Mrs. Colavito for an Italian youth residing in the east end, were in the hands of chemists today for analysis. The "medicine" caused the youth to become seriously ill.

Mrs. Colavito has already admitted that she furnished a medicine to Mrs. Kaber to be given to her husband to cure him of his "bad habits."

Buckeye Brevities Gathered By I. N. S.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—"Crime is conceived, not in the home, the school, the church nor at work, but in the sacred hours of recreation and the community which does not provide adequate recreation facilities for its children is failing in its duty to the child and is building up a system of crime," declared Dr. W. E. Kellog, of the Mansfield reformatory, delivering a sermon at Bread Street M. E. church.

Such institutions as the Mansfield reformatory, said Rev. Dr. Kellog, are signs that civilization failed and some institutions of society neglected to do its duty and serve its proper function.

"There is no cure for crime, except the cure of the criminal, and, until he is cured, he should be kept where he is unable to commit crime," continued Dr. Kellogg. "If he is never cured, then he should be kept away as long as he lives."

MARTINS FERRY, June 15.—The wireless operators of the Ohio Valley will get the Dempsey Carpentier fight by rounds. This announcement came by radiophone from Pittsburgh.

BELLAIRE, June 15.—Joseph Coreccio, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Corecclo, is dead here as a result of eating green apples. He succumbed the morning after he ate the unripe fruit. Coroner C. C. Hardesty is investigating.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 15.—The physicians at the Ohio Valley General hospital have arranged to purchase $14,000 worth of radium for the institution. At present, radium treatment is obtainable at Baltimore for local patients.

FINDLAY, June 15.—Ten cent cash fare will become effective on the Findlay street cars July first, replacing eight-cent cash fare, the city street car commission has announced. The rate of seven tickets for 50 cents will be continued. Two tickets will be sold for 15 cents. Children will be carried for 5 cents.

The $20,000 sinking fund set up when the new cost-plus street car franchise became effective, March 17, has dwindled to $15,700 as a result of March, April and May losses.

TIRO, June 15.—Six little red country school houses netted the board of education of the Auburn Township consolidated school district $1,410.26 when sold at auction to the highest bidder. The bell of the West Liberty school house was sold to C. C. Stephens for $1. He will use it for a dinner bell.

TILTONVILLE, June 15.—A train carrying Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Betton, of Tiltonville; their daughter, Mrs. G. J. McNealy, and granddaughter, Erma Dalrymple, of Dennison, was menaced by the Arkansas river flood while stranded at La Junta, Col. Many persons left the train, they stated, fearing the flood would reach it.

COLUMBUS, June 15—That the uniform rule of taxation is the fairest, because it taxes both real and personal property at its true value, is the claim made by M. E. Thrailkill, prominent local attorney, addressing a Columbus audience.

Public officials, guilty of laxity, and taxpayers who conceal property should be blamed, and not the law, he said, if property escaped taxation.

It was his opinion that a lower rate on intangible property would not induce a dishonest person to pay taxes. A person, he declared, who lied to escape paying taxes totaling $10 would lie to escape paying a smaller amount.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, June 15.—Mike Woytina, 27, a Russian, of Barton, was placed in jail here in default of $1,000 bond, charged with being an alien anarchist. He was arrested on a warrant from the Cleveland office of the commissioner of immigration.

Woytina admitted being an anarchist and distributing anarchistic literature. He said he favored free love and that when he got tired of one "wife" he would "go look for another." He is a coal miner.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—"Success is never accidental," declared Rev. A. L. Brokaw, pastor of the West Park M. E. church here, delivering the baccalaureate sermon in the presence of the West high school graduates.

"Wealth may be inherited, talent may be native, but success can only be attained," he continued. "Water runs down hill. That is nature—not achievement. It is forced up hill. That is achievement.

"Too many people are always waiting for something to turn up. The man who succeeds is the man who gets out and finds something to turn up, and the eight hour man never became famous."

French Mission Is To Visit At Tokio

PARIS, June 15.—The French government is sending a military mission to Japan, headed by Marshal Joffre, it was announced today. The press is devoting considerable space to comment upon the strengthening of relations between this country and Japan, as a result of the visit of the Japanese crown prince.

Ontario Man Heads Rotarians Of World

EDINBURG, June 15.—Dr. Crawford McCullough, of Fort Williams Ont., today was unanimously elected international president of the Rotary clubs. The delegates sang, "The Long, Long Trail," an American song popular in war time, with Frank Weedon of New York leading. This is an important part of every convention.

GERMAN UNIONS BLAMED FOR WAR

DENVER, June 15.—Blame for the recent World war was placed squarely on the shoulders of organized labor in Germany by President Samuel Gompers in an address to the American Federation of Labor convention here today.

"I hold, and I accept, full responsibility for what I am about to say," said President Gompers, "that the organized labor movement of Germany failed dismally at the critical hour.

"If it had taken the situation in hand it might have meant the destruction of a few thousands, but it would have stopped the war. The failure of men to act at a time of crisis is faithlessness to a common cause."

In his address, which was a response to those of fraternal delegates from Great Britain and Canada, President Gompers dwelt upon attitude of the federation and himself both during the war and since, during the period of reconstruction.

W. F. Bush, fraternal delegate representing the Canadian Trades & Labor Congress, told the assembled delegates that ... difficulties, organized labor in Canada at least was holding its own. He reviewed the ... "one big union" movement, and predicted ... death."

A resolution was adopted by the convention urging congress to pass immediately the Johnson bill, providing for a federal investigation into conditions in the Mingo county, West Virginia, strike zone.

WOMEN! DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that would be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, laces, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything!

Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washboiler, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks, or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning.

A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning, costs little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.

Drinking a Glass of Hot Water is a Splendid Habit

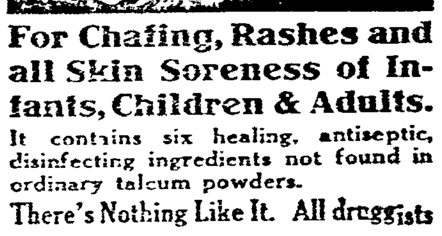

Cleanse and sweeten the system each morning and wash away poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can instead both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before eating more food.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is enough to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism an enthusiast on internal sanitation.

Greatest of Liberal Newspapers

GREATEST of English liberal newspapers, greatest, perhaps, of the world's liberal publications, The Manchester Guardian is celebrating its hundredth milestone.

Just a century ago John Edward Taylor, a courageous citizen of Manchester, England, with a staff of one, Jeremiah Barnett, who was printer, business manager and sole reporter, published the first issue of The Manchester Guardian. Taylor and Barnett had ideals and courage, a combination that has ever been the terror of reactionaries and Tories in every land and clime. Of the work these two brave journalists did and the foundation they laid, The Detroit News says editorially:

"Echoing that passionate cry for parliamentary reform which began in England at the time of the American revolution, born in the hour when Napoleon passed from the world, the new paper was dedicated by its founder to the right of the citizen to know the facts of the world, and to be given such help as a free and responsible journal can provide.

"Its career has been a distinguished one; it has been the persistent advocate of common sense; it was the journalistic backbone of that epoch of liberalism which produced Cobden, Bright and Gladstone, and for no man has it ever forsaken its policy. It stood for free nationality in the Balkans against the dissolving Turkish power, attacked the adventurous imperialism of Disraeli in the East, and that of Joseph Chamberlain in Africa, came out boldly for Irish self-government, and by its sincere devotion to the best liberal interests of its country has achieved a range and authority equaled by few newspapers in the world, and excelled, it can fairly be said, by none.

"Nor is it possible to overlook the vast benefit it has conferred on journalism everywhere, and the public, by the high standard of utterance it has maintained even in the least of its departments, the literary excellence it has encouraged, and the accuracy and good temper of its work, side by side with its acknowledged supremacy as the commercial authority of England's important industrial region."

Confiscating War Profits

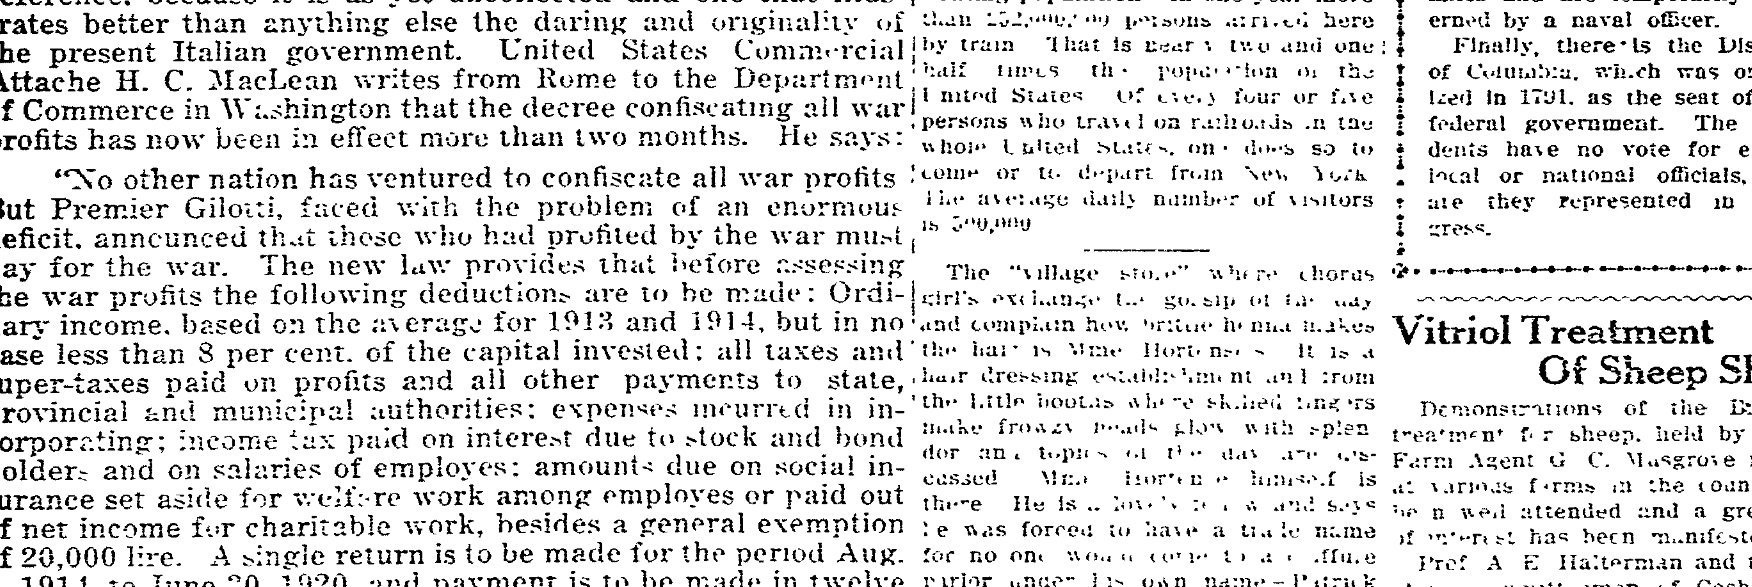

THE financial mystery of recent months is the rise of the Italian lire. These standard Italian coins are worth today just about double what they were when 1921 was ushered in, and this in a country popularly supposed to be the poorest of all the world's great nations and perpetually on the verge of repudiation and actual bankruptcy!

The Italian lire has risen more rapidly than the money of any other nation in Europe. And this in a country practically without natural resources, in the American acceptance of the term, few articles to export and a per capita indebtedness that is staggering. Some time ago Premier Gilotti gave out an interview in which he said that if the present taxes were distributed thruout the entire population, every man, woman and child in Italy would be paying $30 a year to the government, obviously an impossible task as Italy is situated.

There was one tax, however, to which Gilotti made no reference, because it is as yet uncollected and one that illustrates better than anything else the daring and originality of the present Italian government. United States Commercial Attache H. C. MacLean writes from Rome to the Department of Commerce in Washington that the decree confiscating all war profits has now been in effect more than two months. He says:

"No other nation has ventured to confiscate all war profits But Premier Gilotti, faced with the problem of an enormous deficit, announced that those who had profited by the war must pay for the war. The new law provides that before assessing the war profits the following deductions are to be made: Ordinary income, based on the average for 1913 and 1914, but in no case less than 8 per cent. of the capital invested; all taxes and super-taxes paid on profits and all other payments to state, provincial and municipal authorities; expenses incurred in incorporating; income tax paid on interest due to stock and bond holders and on salaries of employes; amounts due on social insurance set aside for welfare work among employes or paid out of net income for charitable work, besides a general exemption of 20,000 lire. A single return is to be made for the period Aug. 1, 1914, to June 30, 1920, and payment is to be made in twelve bi-monthly instalments."

What sum will be realized from this extraordinary tax it is, of course, impossible to guess, but legislation of this type explains much of Giolitti's popularity, as well as the rapid rise in the value of Italian money.

A New Low Price on a Known and Honest Product

New York Day-By-Day

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 15.—Chinatown is bristling with sawed off guns. Almost every loose fitting silk coat conceals a weapon Boston Charlie, who succeeded Chuck Conners as mayor, lives in stoical dread of the future. The police at Mulberry Street anxiously scan the blotter for the report of a Chinatown resident found dead in one of the dark alleyways.

Ashot in the dark A scurrying of slippered feet and the police know that the ancient feud between the On Leon and Hip Sing tongs has flashed forth again in all its fury "Old Horse and Wagon," Chinatown's only Chinese beggar, has fled to Jersey. He is pacifist and always leaves before hostilities begin.

The inscrutable ways of the Chinese cannot be fathomed. The police only know from their hop head stool pigeons that the truce, fostered by the white man, has been broken. White wives have departed with their half caste children to temporary Bowery refuges. The joss house is deserted and the printers on the Chinese daily have secured pistol permits.

Visitors are denied the privilege of parking their cars in front of the chop suey cafes for when the tong war starts automobiles are used as forts by the warriors When dusk falls the little clustered knots about the dried fish, leeche nut and souvenir stores are missing Tong war history shows that Chinatown is sullen and brooding before the storm breaks.

The only noise is the roar of the elevated trains spin high in the clouds in Chatham Square Mott, Pell and Doyer, those queer little crooked narrow streets, run off the square. Chatham Square folk hard by care little about the tong wars "Let the Chinks fight," they say They are more interested in "The Kiss of Death," which the flaming posters show is the weekly movie attraction.

The greatest agitation is shown by the raddled, pasty faced "hop heads," the white derelict slaves of the poppy, who burrow their way into the hutch of the Chinese to dream away the lagging hours Chinatown is their last stand The narcotic squad has waged a furious war on other opium dens and they are closed

The Central Office "dicks," who travel in pairs, through the Chinese quarter, have strange chalk markings on doorways. The letters are distinctly Chinese Yet they are in code and they foretell the Chinese fury that will soon be spent in blood spilling.

Only London surpasses New York in floating population In one year more than 152,000,000 persons arrived here by train That is nearly two and one half times the population of the United States Of every four or five persons who travel on railroads in the whole United States, one does so to come or to depart from New York The average daily number of visitors is 500,000

The "village store" where chorus girl's exchange the gossip of the day and complain how brittle henna makes the hair is Mme Hortense's It is a hair dressing establishment and from the little booths where skilled fingers make frowzy heads glow with splendor and topics of the day are discussed Mme Hortense himself is there He is a lovely fellow and says he was forced to have a trade name for no one would come to a coiffure parlor under his own name—Patrick Donovan

It is amazing how one's entire day may be upset by little irritations On a cross street the other day I met an artist whose joviality is almost an institution, and yet he was in a rage He and he had passed a tea shop bearing the name "Kum and ..re"

XLVIII.—TERRITORIES

"THE Story of our States" would not be complete without a brief mention of the other territory of the United States, which is not included in the actual forty-eight states. The biggest of these territories is Alaska, with an area of 590,884 square miles. This huge region was under Russian domination until 1867 when the United States purchased it for $7,200,000, or less than two cents an acre. There was some grumbling at the time by a few congressmen over "adding a refrigerator to the United States." But the refrigerator has been found to be well stocked with gold, coal, forests and fisheries, so that Alaska has proven a profitable investment

Hawaii, like Alaska, is a regular territory. In 1893 there was a successful revolution against the Hawaiian queen, and a provisional government was formed under American protection. In 1898, at the request of the population, Hawaii was annexed to the United States.

Porto Rico, Guam and the Philippines were ceded to the United States in 1899 as a result of the Spanish-American war. Porto Rico and the Philippines are dependencies and not territories. Their local affairs are administered by a legislature of two houses and they are represented in the United States by resident commissioners elected by the legislatures. Guam is under the control of naval officers in command of naval stations. Under similar naval control are the Tutuila group and Samoa, which were ceded in 1899 by Great Britain and Germany.

Then there is the Panama Canal Zone, which was purchased from Panama in 1904 for $10,000,000. This is governed by the Isthmian Canal commission

The year 1917 saw the purchase from Denmark of the Virgin Islands, for $25,000,000. These aggregate only 150 square miles and are temporarily governed by a naval officer.

Finally, there is the District of Columbia, which was organized in 1791, as the seat of our federal government. The residents have no vote for either local or national officials, nor are they represented in congress.

"MAIN STREET"

The "Main Street" boom is dying down and I won't worry when it's dead—and once again the country town begins to raise its humbled head Poor country town! The home of hicks, whose souls can't rise above the dust, where all aesthetic games and tricks are looked upon with deep disgust. In gopher towns I've lived and loved, and there I learned to swat my lyre, and as along Main Street I shoved, I saw a whole lot to admire And there I've known the finest gents, great fellows, large of mind and heart; I wonder why they pitched their tents so far from Culture and from Art? The country town inspires the jokes of specialists in caustic mirth; but there you'll often find the folks who are the salt of this old earth The country town has many rubes, who on their idle errands trot, and if you only look for boobs, as Lewis did, you'll find a lot. But if you look for t'other kind, strong men who ornament the race, and women gracious and refined, you'll find them, also, in the place. Go, visit now the Hall of Fame, and mark the High Nobs looking down, and figure out how many came from Gopher or some smaller town. The "Main Street" book is not so bad, as twaddle, for the twaddling mob; but as a picture of our grad it is the poorest sort of daub.

Roses and garden flowers, carrying out an attractive color scheme, were placed in bowls and vases. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of duchesse satin and chiffon, embroidered with seed pearls. The court train was lined with chiffon and pearl embroidered. Her tulle veil hung from a coronet of rose point lace and her flowers were orchids, lilies of the valley and sweetheart roses, in a shower bouquet. Miss Eleanor Winter, as her sister's maid of honor, and only attendant, wore a frock of pink chiffon, over satin, girdled with pale blue chiffon. She carried an armful of pink roses and larkspur. Roses, peonies, larkspur and yellow iris, with ferns and crotons, were used thruout the house. The musicians were screened with an effective arrangement of lacy ferns and in the dining room ferns and croton topped the fireplace and china closets. Centering the table was an effective arrangement of pink and white peonies, roses and yellow iris, caught with yellow ribbons. The bride's table where covers were laid for 22, was placed in the garage, which was practically open on all sides. Hung with white crash and covered with trailing vines and rambler roses, it made a charming setting for the wedding party and the intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom. PRETTY JUNE WEDDING AT GEORGE SWAN HOME UNITES DAUGHTER EVALYN WITH J. M. MERCER, OF DUQUESNE, PA. TUESDAY AFTERNOON AT TWO

One of the most brilliant and beautifully appointed weddings ever consummated in this city was the marriage Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock of Miss Evalyn Swan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Swan, 617 Cambridge-st, and John Moore Mercer Jr., of Duquesne, Pa., which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents.

The Swan home, which was the scene of the nuptials, was profusely and lavishly decorated for the occasion. The great living room where the service was read by the Rev. Joseph A. Speer, of First Presbyterian church, was especially elaborate. At one side an artistic grouping of ferns and palms was used, while a large arch, entwined with Dorothy Perkins roses, from which was suspended a wedding bell formed of the pink roses, served as a fitting background for the bridal couple where the ceremony was performed. Set here and there were graceful baskets and vases filled with the Dorothy Perkins roses and calla lilies, while shaded lights added a pretty touch to the scene.

To the soft sweet strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Lucille Mercer, of Pittsburgh, sister of the bridegroom, the bridal party entered, taking their respective places beneath the arch. First came Miss Helen Patterson, niece of Miss Swan, as maid of honor, fetchingly gowned in a pretty frock of crisp coral colored organdie, with hat to match, carrying an armful of pink roses. Next the bridegroom, and George Simpson, of Pittsburgh, as best man, followed by the bride, who entered upon the arm of her father.

The bride was radiantly beautiful in a bridal costume of white crepe meteor and court train of white satin. Her long tulle veil was becomingly plaited and caught with orange blossoms, falling in graceful folds from her head over the long court train, which completed her elegant costume. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses, showered with lilies of the valley. Her only jewels were a string of pearls and a handsome platinum bracelet set with diamonds, the latter the bridegroom's gift.

Little Robert Roscoe, of Cleveland, nephew of Miss Swan carried the ring in a lily.

Mrs. Swan was charming in a lavender organdie embroidered in black, wearing a corsage of Ophelia roses; Mrs. Ray H. Patterson, sister of the bride, was lovely in a gown fashioned of orange crepe meteor with trimmings of Venetian lace and bright blue ribbon; another sister of Miss Swan's, Mrs. P. E. Roscoe, wore an attractive dress of blue georgette, heavily beaded.

Mrs. Mercer is one of the loveliest and most attractive members of the younger social set and possesses an unusual charm of manner and most pleasing personality. She was graduated from the Steubenville high school and later graduated from Westminster College, at New Wilmington, Pa. For the past three years she together with her parents, has made her home in Coshocton, having moved here from Steubenville, and since that time she has been engaged as teacher of music in the local public schools. She possesses a fine lyric soprano voice and is prominent in the Woman's Music club as well as the Junior Woman's literary club. While popular in social circles, she is also popular in church circles and has sung in the First Presbyterian church choir since coming to this city. Her many friends in this community regret that her marriage will take her to a distant city to reside.

Mr. Mercer is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. John M. Mercer, of Pittsburgh and owing to the illness of the former, the bridegroom's parents were unable to attend the wedding. Mr Mercer is a splendid young man of sterling qualities and is popular among his associates. He was graduated from Westminister college, at New Wilmington, Pa., and at present is Professor of Science in the Duquesne high school. During the late World war, he was in service for more than two years and served more than a year in France.

The bride's table, where places were laid for 12, was especially artistic, and attractively decorated. Centering the table was a huge bouquet of bride's roses and at either end pink candles, tied with pink tulle, were held in crystal holders. Dainty place cards of miniature brides and bridegrooms were used and pretty baskets filled with nuts were given as favors. A delicious 5-course luncheon was served following the ceremony.

Among the out of town guests were: Mrs. Perry Mercer, Mrs. Glenn Gibson, Miss Lucille Mercer, sister of the bridegroom and George Simpson, of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brook, Miss Emma McClelland and Miss Marie Smith, of Steubenville, Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Roscoe and children, Robert and Theodore, Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Patterson and daughter, Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Ordello Doty, and Miss Briggs, of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mercer left last evening for an eastern wedding trip and after July 1st will be at home to their friends in Pittsburgh, until fall, when they will go to housekeeping in Duquesne, Pa.

The Indians and early settlers knew and benefited by Nature. Alive, the roots and herbs of the field. Because Lydia E. Pinkham knew their medicinal value, thousands of women all over the world have been saved from operations, but only such as have taken it in time.

Emil Jannings as King Henry VIII in the Paramount Picture, "Deception."

Anne Boleyn, mother of Queen Elizabeth, and second wife of King Henry VIII, of England, is the chief character in the superb Paramount picture, "Deception," which will be presented at the Pastime Theatre tonight. Henny Porten, a celebrated screen star of Europe, plays the part of Anne with a majesty and force seldom achieved by any screen player.

The story has to do with the love romance of Anne Boleyn, whose child ultimately becomes the Virgin Queen. Emil Jannings is seen as King Henry. The supporting players are highly artistic in their respective portrayals.

A special orchestra will furnish the music for this attraction.

Thirty of the Irish delegates signed the "British goods" boycott resolution introduced despite the opposition of the group headed by Peter J. It is predicted that this resolution will never come out of committee and one of the hottest fights to come before the convention is anticipated as a result.

Equal right for women and the color line will also precipitate fights in the convention, according to predictions.

Samuel Gompers, it was learned, advised the women active in behalf of a proposed amendment to the constitution of the federation, embodying a woman's boll of rights, to drop their efforts. The proposed amendment has been introduced in modified form.

A.'s flavor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom from bite and parch (cut out by our exclusive patented process) are a revelation to the man who never could get acquainted with a pipe! P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to four men where one was smoked before!

Ever roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert? Man, man—but you've got a party coming your way! Talk about a cigarette smoke; we tell you it's a peach!

Prince Albert is sold in toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top.

POLITICAL ENEMIES BLAMED FOR MURDER OF BAVARIAN LEADER

BERLIN, by radio, June 15—All Germany is stirred by the assassination of Karl Gareisi, official leader of the Bavarian Independent Socialists in the Bavarian Landtag. Gareisi was shot four times by an unknown assailant. The murder took place directly in front of his own door early Friday morning as Gareisi was returning from a meeting at which he had attacked the Orgesch (Bavaria's private army) and demanded disarmament.

All Socialist parties, the trade unions and workers' councils are united in carrying out all over Bavaria a 24-hour general strike, which began Friday midnight. They demanded the resignation of the Bavarian chancellor, Rekahr, and his administration. The street car service is tied up, stores are closed and the only newspaper is sued is the Battle, official organ of the Independent Socialists.

Forwaerts, organ of the Majority Socialists, and Freiheit, see the murder as an act of revenge on the part of the Orgesch and the Einwohnerwehr (the Bavarian militia kept at 329,000 in defiance of the allied ruling) whom Gareisi fought. They say the government is equally responsible with the murderers. Even the reactionary Allgemeine Zeitung holds Gareisi's political opponents responsible for the murder and predicts serious consequences. The organ of the Bavarian Volkspartei recently advocated the shooting of Gareisi like a mad dog.

Gareisi was a student of history and geography and became a teacher. Entering politics, he became the leader of Bavarian Independent Socialists.

The Bavarian government, in a statement today, deplored the murder of Herr Gareisi and offered a reward of 10,000 marks for the arrest of his assassins.

WASHINGTON, June 14—Six of President Harding's home town friends were special guests at the white house today.

The party motored here from Marion and spent considerable time at the white house executive offices where they not only greeted the president but also found old time friends in Brig. Gen. Sawyer, Secretary Christian, Charles Hart and others from Marion.

Tomorrow the president and Mrs. Harding will entertain at luncheon, at the white house for the members of the party, which is George Frank, Dan Frank, Bonnie Metzger, Dr. Richardson, Frank Lyst and George Kracht.

CLOWS WIN AND SHARE THE LEAD WITH GLASS TEAM

The Clows tied the Glass House for first place in the Industrial League standing Tuesday evening when they defeated the Hunt-Crawford-Beach aggregation at the Red Sea by the score of 7 to 2. Errors were responsible for the runs made on both sides.

The Clows batted Wilson of the Hunt-Crawfords for two runs in the first inning, and kept ahead of the paper-makers all thru the game. The paper-makers finally got to Clark for two runs, the only ones made by them in the contest.

The Glass House aggregation defeated the Art Works at Red Sea diamond Monday evening by the score of 5 to 1.

SHIPOWNERS TAKE STUBBORN STAND IN THE MARINE STRIKE

NEW YORK, June 15.—Continued efforts to settle the marine workers' strike have been blocked at all points by the pointblank refusal of the shipowners to take part in the negotiations with the unions. Altho Darragh De Lancey, head of the bureau of mediation of the shipping board, has been in New York endeavoring to get the ship owners to consent to some basis for a conference with the union officials, his efforts thus far have been met by refusals. Meantime the unions, their leaders say, are holding their own satisfactorily and are ready to enter negotiations at any time to bring the strike to an end.

Leaders of the marine engineers' organizations have been in Washington, where they have had a number of conferences with the shipping board officials. Winthrop L. Marvin, vice-president of the American Steamship Owners' Association, has repeated his declaration that the private operators will refuse to take any part in the negotiations.

As will be recalled it was not always so. At the beginning of the strike the ship owners struck a dramatic attitude and called upon everybody, particularly the workers, to "stand by the government," as represented by the shipping board. Then the board decided to extend for another year its recognition of the marine unions as a factor in the situation, and the shipowners suddenly lost interest in "standing by the government."

From the owners' representatives come regularly statements to the effect that they are operating ships in great shape, and that everything with them is lovely. But more than one ship has slunk back into port after clearing with a strikebreaking crew, and no one has been able to pry them from the reasons for the sudden decision to turn back.

Also, in parts of the waterways adjacent to New York, which are as secluded as possible from public view, there are many idle ships.

BABE GETS NO. 22

NEW YORK, June 14. — Babe Ruth put the ball over the left field fence today in the first inning, for twenty second home run.

Dauss was pitching for Detroit. Ruth's clout scored Peckinpaugh, who had singled.

Industrial Game

The American Art Works' team and the Glass House aggregation are scheduled to play at the Red Sea diamond this evening.

BIG METEOR FELL NEAR FINDLAY

FATHERS OF MEN

"THERE is much truth in the old saying, 'As the twig is bent, so the tree inclines,'" observed the retired merchant. "If a boy inclined to crookedness grew up to be a straight and reliable man, it would be nothing short of a miracle. Therefore I tremble for the future of Spoonable's boy, William Henry. He seems to be just naturally vicious."

"You're full of excelsior," said the hotelkeeper politely. "All those chestnutty old sayings are fakes. The patriarchs used to be always saying that the boy is the father of the man, but he isn't; and he isn't grandmother to the man, either. You can't study a boy and predict what sort of a man he's going to be, any more than the official forecaster can examine his maps and charts and tell us what the weather will be like tomorrow.

"You observe that my larboard eye is somewhat discolored and I have a contusion on my brow, and my nose is slightly out of alignment. Yesterday I was pirouting along a back street on a little errand, when I beheld a big, husky teamster pounding the sawdust out of a venerable horse that had seen better days. I went up to him and protested in the most courteous way, and he said it would afford him genuine pleasure to kick my spine up through my hat, if I didn't go my way and leave him alone. I informed him that if he hit that horse again I would push his countenance out of place, and he immediately clubbed the suffering animal harder than ever.

"I am glad to say that I succeeded in kicking most of the rind off the teamster's ribs before he got me down and sat on my head, but I submit that a man who will take such chances as I did must have the cause of cruelty to animals much at heart. There's nothing makes my blood boil quicker than to see an animal abused.

"Well, when I was a boy I had a wide reputation for cruelty. I used to delight in tying tin cans to the tails of dogs, and in drowning cats, and in robbing birds' nests, and all such sinful pastimes. The moralists of that period agreed that I was entitled to the mantle of Nero, and that I would come to a bad end. Yet when I became old enough to have some sense, I made pets of all the dumb critters within eight miles.

"If that old maxim about the twig and the tree were any good, it ought to work both ways, and the saintly boy always would become a grand, good man. But as a rule the truly good boys don't amount to much in after life. Nearly all our useful citizens were hard citizens when they were boys, and the shiftless, no-account men were simply angelic when they went to school.

"A boy gets tired of being immaculate after he has tried it a few years, and he goes to the other extreme. And the boy who has been a horrible example ever since he left the cradle gets sick of that sort of thing when he has cut his wisdom teeth, and he becomes so virtuous that there's no living in the same block with him.

"Most of the old sayings are foolish and trifling, and I am surprised when a grown man goes around quoting them. Yet a lot of fellows think they have clinched an argument when they drag in a bewhiskered maxim. In order to show that Spoonable's boy is foredoomed, you spring that old wheeze about the twig and the tree. You might just as well say that Mary had a little lamb, and consider the argument closed.

"I know you are suffering to remind me that people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones, but I won't stand for it."

IT TOOK ALL THE GRIT MASON HAD TO STICK IT OUT

"Every time I go out on a run now, I feel thankful to Tanlac for I'm convinced it kept me on the job," said William W. Mason, 1924 McClellan St., Philadelphia, for the past nine years a motorman for the Rapid Transit Co.

"I had stomach trouble in a bad form for three years and was going down hill fast. Nothing I ate agreed with me and after every meal I was sure to have heartburn, dizziness and sometimes awful cramps. I got in such a nervous condition my hand shook like a man with the palsy and at nights my sleep was broken and restless. In the mornings I felt so miserable I used to dread the time to come for me to take out my car, and it took every ounce of grit I could muster to stick until quitting time. Finally I got so weak and was so discouraged I was ready to give up.

"This was my condition when I started taking Tanlac and I owe all my present good health to this wonderful medicine and to nothing else. The first thing it did for me was to whet my appetite and I soon found I could eat anything without fear of bad after effects. It's a fact, four bottles made a new man out of me. My nerves are quiet, I sleep like a log and wake up in the morning feeling fine. Then I eat a big breakfast and go to work whistling like I used to long ago. If people knew Tanlac like I do the clerks in the drug stores couldn't wrap it up fast enough to supply the demand. It's great."

DR. THWING, OLDEST COLLEGE PRESIDENT SENDS RESIGNATION

CLEVELAND, June 15—Dr. Charles F. Thwing, for thirty-one years president of Western Reserve University and Adelbert College, and the oldest college president in point of service in the United States has announced his resignation, to take effect either next August or November at the pleasure of the trustees.

At the same time a gift of $500,000 in cash from Samuel Hather for the benefit of the medical college was announced.

ADMIRAL SIMS IS ON HIS WAY HOME

LONDON, June 15—Rear Admiral William S. Sims, U. S. N., who was recalled by Secretary of the Navy Denby at Washington, departed for home.

There was a distinguished assemblage at Waterloo station to bid good bye to the admiral and his special railway car was gorgeously decorated with roses and smilax.

The American admiral who was accompanied by his wife, was cheerful and smiling. He showed no trace of anxiety in his demeanor.

Admiral Sims had booked passage for New York upon the liner Olympic before his recall orders were received from Secretary Denby. Admiral Sims chatted with the British naval officers and other officers who were at the station, but refused to be interviewed. All he would say for publication was that he had an enjoyable time and appreciated the courtesies that the English people had shown him.

Among those who wished the American naval officer farewell were Admiral Watson and Sir Sidney Freeman of the British navy; Sir Lowther Grant and Col. Selbert.

Mrs. Sims was presented with a bouquet on behalf of the Queenstown officers association.

Just before leaving Mrs Sims said she had been deeply impressed by English girls and especially by members of the girl scouts.

"I certainly hope that the girl scout movement continues to grow, for I believe it will be instrumental in giving much help to the rising generation. I have been asked what I think of the English girls. Of course I have not had an opportunity to get much more than a glimpse, but I have been much impressed by the courteous manners and helpfulness shown by the girls over here.

"It seems to me that the games played by the English children call for more imagination than those of the American children."

KRAMER SAYS IT LOOKS DUBIOUS FOR THIRSTY

WASHINGTON, June 15.—John Kramer, retired dry law chief today on the eve of departing for his home at Mansfield, Ohio, had nothing but gloomy predicitions for the thirsty.

During my 20 months battling with old John Barleycorn, I did what I could to "dry up" the country. It's a safe bet that it's harder to get a drink, than it was when I entered office. You see, I stopped the flood of liquor from bond. That helped some, but they got a mighty tough job to tackle in meeting this smuggling situation.

Kramer sized up the "dryness" of his successor thus:

"If you thot it difficult to get a jolt of "old red likker" when I was in office, you will have a sample of real dryness if this fellow Haynes has his way. Of course he must confine himself to the law, and not attempt to jump over the traces, despite his temperance leanings."

SNIPERS GET BUSY IN IRISH RIOTING

BELFAST, June 15—Two civilians were killed in rioting which was in progress in this city most of the night. A girl who was wounded when snipers fired upon a trolley car, died in the hospital.

The unionists cheered the police as the latter opened fire with rifles against buildings from which snipers were shooting. There were numerous casualties and many of the wounded were treated in hospitals.

Some of the republicans constructed regular barricades with sand bags on the roofs of the building, from behind which they carried on a desultory fire against the police.

GENERAL WAGE CUT IN STEEL STARTED

PITTSBURGH, June 15.—Several of the largest independent steel companies of the Pittsburgh and Youngstown district will put in effect tomorrow, reduction in wages and changes in working conditions.

The Brier Hill Steel Co., of Youngstown, will reduce salaries of all officials and employees 15 per cent. The Jones and Laughlin Steel co., of Pittsburgh, largest of the independents, will abolish all over time. This means an approximate reduction of from 15 to 25 per cent.

Other big companies, including Cambria Steel Co., of Johnstown, and some units of the United States Steel Corporation, and Midvale Steel and Ordance Co., have already abolished the overtime.

President James A. Campbell, of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., announced no bonus would be paid officials of his company, and adds "Salaries must also be reduced. They were never raised in the same proportion as wages. Therefore, it will mean a less severe cut."

In some steel circles in Pittsburgh, it was stated today that a wage cut by the United States Steel corporation may be looked for soon, probably not later than July 1.

BANDITS GET BOOZE VALUED AT $90,000

CINCINNATI, June 15—Two large trucks enroute from Frankfort, Kentucky to New York city, containing 500 cases of whiskey, owned by Max Gross of 188 Christie street New York were held up by two automobiles containing 16 men at Sanfordtown, Ky., 8 miles south of Cincinnati early last night.

After ordering the guards from the trucks and disabling a high powered racing car in which Gross and guards were riding the 16 thieves boarded the two trucks and escaped toward Covington. The estimated value of the whiskey was placed at $90,000.

Gross has offered a reward of $5,000 for information leading to recovery of the whiskey.

Police said this morning they expect to make several arrests before noon.
